

TRANSITIONS KIDS TIMES

Meeting Families as They Are, Where They Are

This month we are focusing on mothers. May 5 is Bereaved Mother's Day which recognizes and honors mothers who have experience the death of a child. Transitions Kids' bereaved mother's group, SheShed, offers mothers an opportunity to talk about their child, their family's story, and to share their feelings, thoughts, and worries. Mothers who attend are welcome to participate or to simply listen to their comfort, there is no pressure to talk during the group session.
