

An Act of Love:

Talking with Your Family About Serious Illness and End of Life

Transitions LifeCare proudly presents An Act of Love: Talking with Your Family About Serious Illness and End of Life, a 25-minute documentary that explores the lived experiences of people in Black, Latino, and rural communities as they navigate their unique experiences with hospice and palliative care. Narrated by Grammy-nominated artist Nnenna Freelon, the film highlights stories of love, dignity, and legacy.

Monday, October 27, 2025

5:30–6:30 p.m. | Doors open

Enjoy heavy hors d'oeuvres from Scurlocks

Music by Diali Keba Cissokho and Will Ridenour

6:30–8:30 p.m. | Film screening and discussion

Location

Chatham County Agriculture & Conference Center, Studio A
1192 U.S. Hwy 64 West Pittsboro, NC 27312

More Information

Visit heart2heartnc.com or transitionslifecare.org

Contact Brooksie Edwards at 919-548-4963

or heart2heartnorthcarolina@gmail.com

